

Voice Festival Emerging Leader Programme

What is the programme:

- An opportunity for vocal practitioners in the early stages of their career in leading a cappella workshops to receive support, advice, mentoring and opportunities from the Voice Festival UK

What we're offering:

- Support, advice, feedback, workshop opportunities and useful contacts from the Voice Festival team
- £100 grant towards your development (for example a course or lesson - to be agreed with VF-UK)
- 2 hours of mentoring with an experienced Voice Festival workshop leader (we will match you with someone suitable to your skills and interests)
- A subsidy for all reasonable travel and resource expenses
- Title of 'Voice Festival Emerging Leader' from February to August 2015

What we expect from you:

- To assist a Voice Festival leader in a workshop (at a point in the year to be discussed - could be at our Festival Weekend, London Regional Festival or Edinburgh Fringe Festival)
- To deliver a Voice Festival workshop alone or in a pair (at a point in the year to be discussed, as above)

How to apply:

- Send us your CV
- Provide us with a covering letter telling us why you would like the opportunity, how you think you would benefit and what you think you would bring to the organisation
- Video of you leading a workshop (if you have one)

Any questions, for an informal discussion about the programme, and to apply - please contact us at voice@thevoicefestival.co.uk
